BOB DONAHUE Lead Vocals

A lifelong Pearl Jam fan and professional vocal coach, Bob's baritone voice is incredibly reminiscent of Eddie Vedder's. With a degree in music business in hand, Bob created Given to Fly in 2014 to honor his musical heroes and recreate the best of Pearl Jam for die-hard fans who know their music well. His gritty, warm sound plus the band's tight delivery makes Given to Fly a standout tribute.

"Donahue may not look like Eddie Vedder, but he sure sounds like him. Like, a lot. He inhabits 'Jeremy', Pearl Jam's dark, mid-tempo hit from 1992, just like Vedder does."

WILL MICHAEL

Bass

From playing the Sunset Strip in LA in its heyday to gigging across the US, Will is a veteran pocket player with a full-bodied sound. He's recorded albums and videos with multiple bands. Will maintains the beat with detail and brings a strong low end that you feel in Pearl Jam songs.

CHRIS ANASTASIO

Lead Guitar & Backing Vocals

Chris is a veteran musician and grunge-era fan who's gigged up and down the East Coast in tribute bands, cover bands, and original bands. He taught guitar at Albright College and has worked as a guitar & violin luthier for 15+ years. Chris is endorsed by Ugly Amps, and Ron Procopio Guitars.

RUI PINTO

Drummer & Backing Vocals

Rui started his music career as a full-time keyboardist touring Portugal for more than 10 years but went on to play as a drummer after arriving in the US in 2005. A graduate of Escola de Jazz Luiz Villas-Boas music school in Lisbon, Rui is a precise drummer who delivers with groove and feel.

FELIPE HENAO

Rhythm Guitar & Backing Vocals

Felipe is a veteran tribute band musician, having been in several touring acts... most recently a Chris Cornell tribute. He's heavily influenced by 70's and 80's bands and cites Eddie Van Halen as his favorite player. Like Stone, Felipe plays for each song with significant technicality and a smooth tone.
